Challenging and Motivating More Able Pupils in the Primary Classroom

How to maximise the potential of the gifted and talented pupils in your school

Course reference: 1089ZUI Price: £269+VAT Timings: 10am - 4pm

More able children can easily become bored or distracted if a suitable curriculum and lesson opportunities is not provided to fulfil their needs. The focus of this course is on practical solutions to this very real problem enabling teachers to develop the full potential of their pupils. Methods of identifying, monitoring and extending work to challenge and satisfy more able children will be covered. Activities, practical examples and small group discussion will explore the strategies and approaches that teachers can employ when planning for opportunities to stretch the most able.

Course content

- Appraise a range of strategies to identify your gifted and talented learners and monitor their progress
- Adapt planning to meet the needs of the most able
- Examine strategies and differentiation to extend pupils with different learning styles and gifts
- Consider how activities and resources encourage creativity, exploration and development of ideas
- Review best practice and policy for the more able
